

Remember the Sentence

These cards can be folded vertically. Children should read the sentences, turn the folded card over and answer the question. Children should write the sentence on the lines given.

1. Tuesday is the day we have gym.
2. Paul plays golf on Thursdays.

Which sentence was first?

twinkl.com

1. Sam and Peter played in the big park.
2. The dinosaur museum was closed.

Which sentence was second?

twinkl.com

1. It rained when I woke up but then the sun came out.
2. Jane took Alfie for a walk but she forgot his lead.

Which sentence was first?

twinkl.com

Remember the Sentence

These cards can be folded vertically. Children should read the sentences, turn the folded card over and answer the question. Children should write the sentence on the lines given.

1. I left my new shoes in the shop!
2. My boots were covered in mud.

Which sentence was second?

twinkl.com

1. The boat sailed late because the tide was low.
2. The window cleaner climbed up the ladder.

Which sentence was first?

twinkl.com

1. We won the game with two goals clear.
2. Tommy was injured in the first half.

Which sentence was second?

twinkl.com

Remember the Sentence

These cards can be folded vertically. Children should read the sentences, turn the folded card over and answer the question. Children should write the sentence on the lines given.

1. The curry was too hot.
2. My favourite meal is pasta.

Which sentence was first?

twinkl.com

1. When will the parcel arrive?
2. The delivery office is closed.

Which sentence was second?

twinkl.com

1. Who was knocking at the door?
2. The door was locked and I could not find the key.

Which sentence was first?

twinkl.com